Status of Strategies to Achieve End Result

- Data pertaining to the percentage of cases not statutorily authorized that the Public Defender Agency moves to withdraw from is expected to be available by February 1, 2010.

Key Component Challenges

Managing increasing caseloads and increasing information processing demands:

The Public Defender Agency experienced high caseload increases in FY2008 for the most complex and resource intensive cases and increases in caseloads for large offices in key areas in FY09. The increase in caseload continues to present substantial challenges regarding information and document processing.

Significant Changes in Results to be Delivered in FY2011

The Agency's core services and performance measures have been redrafted. The Agency has procured a new case management system. Data conversion and implementation was completed in FY2009. The Agency is auditing the data so that the Agency can generate performance measure results. Data is expected to be available in FY2010.

Major Component Accomplishments in 2009

The Agency implemented a new case management system that will allow the Agency to generate performance measure results and to provide more reliable and detailed information for supporting efficiency and cost-saving strategies. Performance measures and corresponding reports have been created to publish performance measure results. The Agency is auditing the system and expects to generate performance measure results based upon FY2010 data.
